I worked with Evan in the University Hospital emergency department & Bridge Clinic when he was a recovery coach with USARA. We social workers considered him an equal colleague, such a delight to work with. He was so good! I know he saved lives through this work. I remember hearing him talk about how much he loved his family. I'm incredibly sad he is no longer with us. My deepest condolences to his family

- Paige Ponte

Pam, Todd and Ashley, I cannot even imagine the grief in your hearts now. Evan touched many lives and in my eyes is a hero. Many years back, he took Stephen under his wing when he was struggling with drug use, depression, and anxiety. That had more of an impact on him at the time than anything else I had tried. It definitely helped him through a very rough time and very well may have saved his life. Certainly Evan saved many lives; he was so generous as he used his life experiences to help others down better paths. I know I am forever in his dept. All my love goes to you, Jen

- Jennifer Cottam

Pam, Jess, & Family, Evan was so loved and admired by so many. He made such an impact on the recovery community and there will never be another Evan with his big smile that lights up a room. He made a true difference in this world and will be missed terribly. ❤■

Billy and family, There are no words to express my sorrow at the loss of Evan. I can't imagine the depth of grief you must be feeling at this time and words seem hollow when spoken at times like this and honestly, do not really help comfort. He has left a hole in all our hearts that only the love of Jesus Christ our Lord can fill. He is the only one that can ultimately comfort our broken hearts. With all my love and prayers. Julie

- Julie fields

My deepest condolences to Pam and her family and Evan's friends. Our children are not supposed to go before us. Words fail to express my deep sorrow for your loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. Please know that I am with you, I'm only a phone call away. I lost an adult son and sharing in your sadness as you remember him.
