Steve so sorry to hear of your father's passing. He's traveled a hard road for the last while but that is behind him now. He is at peace. May your shared memories bring you joy and help you through the coming sad moments. Our thoughts are with you and Josh at this difficult time.

Our condolences to the Finau Family. We saw Finau's obituary and it brought back many memories of a good neighbor in West Valley, Utah. We remember Finau and the cement contract work that he did for many. Marge tended Andria and Brett in our home when Cindi went to work. We drive past our house there on Mignon Drive occasionally and those memories come back. God Bless you all. The Larsens
