To the Dawson family; Treasure and I offer our condolence for the loss of Flyn. I remember many a time he would make me laugh with something he would say when we were young, also how he could make Wade so mad at times. I wish you all peace at this time, and pray you will feel God's love and Comfort. Sincerely Clint & Treasure Dumas.

My condolences to Donna, Paige, parents and rest of the Dawson family. I met Flyn when he lived in Los Angeles many years ago. I was so happy to receive his Christmas card this past December but so sad to hear he was battling cancer. We spoke on the phone recently and as always he was so gracious, not wanting to focus on himself but rather wanting to know how my family and I were doing. Flyn had a BIG heart and was such a positive person. During our phone conversation, he spoke with so much love of Donna and Paige and was so grateful to have them in his life. He shared a photo of Donna and him on his wedding day and wrote "That's the day we got married. I was so lucky!"

I was very sad to hear the passing of Flyn. I want to express from me and my family our condolences to Flyn's family and wish the very best during this sad time. I do know that Flyn is in a better place free from pain and suffering and is very likely smiling and getting acquainted and re-acquainted with family that have passed on before. He will be missed. I was part of the 1st class that Flyn taught in the MRED program and it was my 1st semester as well. He was a little unsure about how long it would take to get through his class material and how strict to be. My whole class just loved him from the start. We could tell his true passion was to be a mentor and a friend. Fast forward two years later he was the teacher for our graduating classes final project. He was dialed in and gave us great resources, and was on point. He just gave it his all to helpful anyway possible. He would never turn away a student to come to his office and talk. He will always be a mentor. His legacy of kindness lives on through those he touched. I know God has his arms open and a smile on his face for Flyn!

I was so so sad to hear the news about Flyn. Flyn was by far the most caring, compassionate and helpful teacher in the U's business school. He was so supportive during my time there and I always enjoyed his classes and our interactions. A few notable memories stick out for me. One time I was running late to class and trying to pay for my parking permit but had forgotten my license plate number. He came up, walking slowly because of his hip, and offered to go back to my car to look at the plate number and pay for my parking so I could get to class. I didn't want to accept his offer, but he insisted. I made it to class right before a quiz was passed out and couldn't have been more thankful for his kind act. Another time, he offered his students tickets to Abravanel Hall. I reached out to him to claim them and he generously met me off campus to deliver them. I used those tickets to take my parents-in-law and husband to a beautiful concert. My mother-in-law passed away of a heart attack the next week, and I was so happy that we had that one last wonderful experience together, once again due to Flyn's generosity. I didn't know Flyn for a long time, but it didn't take much for him to be immediately thoughtful and generous. I'm so glad I had the opportunity to know a tremendous soul like his and will always remember him with great admiration, respect and love. My deepest condolences go to his family.

Dear Donna, Paige and other family members, We wanted to tell you how much we appreciate your husband and father, Flyn and remark about the huge impact he had on us. We had the privilege of getting to know him in the MRED program and were really touched at all that he did to show us that he really cared about us. He gave us so many amazing opportunities to get to know real estate professionals and see actual projects. He too personal interest in the students and we smile to think back on how he allowed us to bring along our son on field trip one Saturday. He often would check in with us to see how we were doing and was so kind to me while I (Synthia) was pregnant during the program as well. It was a real pleasure to associate with him. He was an honest and kind man and we are very grateful we had so many opportunities to learn from him. We have been so sad to hear of his passing and will be praying for you. Sincerely, Matt & Synthia Simonsen

My sincerest condolences to the whole family. I had the great pleasure of taking the capstone course with Flynn as the professor. He always treated everyone with the greatest respect and everyone loved him back. A true model and lesson for us all, especially now. The obituary is beautiful and accurate to the person I saw in Flynn.

Dear Donna and Paige I'm so sorry about the news of Flynn. I'm in Norway right now or you know I would have taken the drive to Salt Lake City. I will always remember Flynn for his kindness and interest in others - he always wanted to know what I was up to when visiting. He was bigger than life always happy and shared a joke and enjoyed to eat great food. You all have touched my life and he has gone too soon Sending prayers to you and the whole family Hugs and Love

Flynn was a wonderful man, leader and mentor. I was associated with him through the MRED program at the U of U. A while back, I reached out to him to reconnect. He suggested we go grab breakfast at Finn's, which we did. We had great conversation and good food. Mid-way through the meal he asked, how can I help you? I said, don't need help with anything, just wanted to touch base and catch up. I think that experience for me sums up the type of guy Flynn was....always willing to offer a helping hand and help the next one in line. He will be greatly missed!

After hearing the news of Flynn Dawson's passing, I took about the business of the day with a heavy heart. The world lost a good man. I first met Flynn years ago in a bank training. We had a discussion about real estate and where we worked. I told him my department did $100 Million in loan proceeds (which when you do small 500k to $5 million loans is a big deal). Flynn then said he (personally) did $100 Million in the last year. I mentioned to him I wanted to work more with developers and he offered to me his pass to the NAIOP symposium (the largest annual CRE meeting in Salt Lake). I took him up on his offer he snuck me into the conference without a ticket. Flynn was never afraid to offer his opinion and his opinion was one that was worth hearing. In a private moment he told me, "I wish I could go back to when I didn't have cancer." I wish that too. The world lost a good one. Prayers are with his wife and daughter.

Dear Donna and Paige, I was so heartbroken to learn of the loss of wonderful, dynamic, inspirational Flynn. What a huge impact one person has had on so many lives. Everyone that met Flynn immediately knew how selfless and genuine he was. A champion of women in business, Flynn was a huge inspiration to me personally, graciously guiding me through the ups and downs of integrating to a new country whilst also taking on a masters. Flynn made it all flow seamlessly, and became somewhat of a father figure to me during my program and in the years after. I'm sure many can attest to this experience. Flynn spoke often of his love of Donna and Paige, a family man through and through. They were his anchor, no matter how much he traveled, achieved in business, or what he did at the college, Donna and Paige were always at the root of everything he did. Flynn and I bonded over our love of travel and we would often check in depending on where we were in the world. Flynn had many great traits, but my favorite is surely how cheeky and funny he was. Even in the most tense of moments, you could always look to Flynn to break the tension with a perfectly timed quip to make everyone at ease. Flynn, you are a bright star and a huge impact on everyone who knows you. I love you and so does Jack. Donna and Paige, we are sending you love, strength and healing in this time.

Love you Uncle Flynn. We will miss you dearly. We will miss all of the fun times we shared with you eating at many Asian restaurants. We will miss your teasing and sarcastic comments! You were always one to liven the party, especially when you would recruit everyone to stand outside the bathroom door and make a tunnel with our arms to cheer on family members when they'd exit the potty haha! Love you Aunt Donna and Paige, we will always be there for you to support you through this time. Families are forever- I thank Heavenly Father for that. Sara, Spencer, Jane, and Annie

I met Flyn last year prior to the pandemic. He immediately started sending me loans to syndicate at the credit union I work for. This was no small thing, the credit union I work for and Zions Bank being long-time rivals, but because of Flyn's goodness and perseverance, we were able to complete two such transactions. We are now working on a third transaction with Zions. This has opened a whole new world for me as a lender, as I've been introduced to some of the best developers in Utah and the nation. My production goals will be shattered this year because of Flyn. His efforts have really trajected my career in an amazing way that never would have happened otherwise. Thank you, Flyn, for being such a great associate and unofficial mentor. It has been a pleasure working with you. You will be missed. RIP, Brother! I offer my condolences to the family and friends of Flyn Dawson he was a great man. God bless. Andrew Brough

Donna, Our sincerest condolences. Flyn was a wonderful man, he was great to have as part of our original SMCC poker group. Personally, he was a meaningful voice during the 2008 Real Estate meltdown and was a voice of reason. No doubt this is hard, but hopefully, you and yours find peace moving forward. I Love You Brother- We sure had many great times and memories of family reunion camp outs at Greys River, Wyoming. Remember Grandpa Williams sitting there playing his guitar around the campfire in the evenings, or when we would go fishing on the river and you would always put the fish back into the river that we caught. . . I could never figure that out. I finally decided that you just wanted to be kind to them. . kinda funny huh? And we had some great times riding the motorcycle with Anderson's out to Fairfield, Utah. And remember that time we were out there and we caught the field on fire out there and Dad & Phil scrambled real hard to put it out. That sure was crazy wasn't it ! And I remember the pigeons you raised and dad built a pen for them in the back yard and from time to time you would let them out and they would fly all over the neighborhood and come back again. And then I remember when you moved to California for a new job at the Bank. I remember telling you that I really missed you when you moved away. Well I know you'll be seeing Grandpa & Grandma Williams and G & G Dawson, and Midge and many of our other relatives including our brother Mikey. . . what an incredible reunion that will be. I miss you Brother. . . . . Brett

I am so sorry for your loss. I had the great opportunity to serve as Flynn's mission companion for three months in the summer and fall of 1984 and know that he will be greatly missed. We served together, just the two of us, in a small, coastal town called Sennan, Japan. I believe that I was his second companion and that he had spent his whole mission up to that point in Sennan. We worked hard, but also had a lot of fun together. I shared one of the most unusual experiences of my life with Flynn. We had left our bikes locked at the local train station one P-day (Preparation Day) as we left town to do some sightseeing. When we returned in the late afternoon, we found our bikes missing. We searched the area in vain to find our bikes worrying that, without transportation, we might not make it to a scheduled teaching appointment that evening. While searching, we passed a police station and decided to ask for their assistance in locating our, likely stolen, bicycles. We carefully explained our predicament (in less than perfect Japanese), and described our bikes in great detail. My recollection is that they even engaged a sketch artist to capture our description. Some time later, we left the station and decided to take a bus home. While walking to the bus stop, we happened upon our bikes, side by side, a few blocks from where we had left them. Perhaps some kids had moved them as a prank. Knowing that we were going to be hard-pressed to make our appointment on time, I made the decision to not inform the police that night, believing that they would give the case extremely low priority if they decided to pursue it at all. Also, to save time, we decided to ride via the main highway as it was the most direct route home. Midway through our ride home, we were startled to see two policemen approaching on motorcycles with their lights flashing. They had received a description of the "stolen" items from their station and pulled us over for the crime of stealing our own bicycles! Fortunately, we were able to explain what had happened and had them call into the station to confirm our story. In the end, we made our teaching appointment and avoided jail time so all was well. We decided never again to question the diligence of the Japanese police. I remember Flynn laughing so hard – he had a great laugh – at the absurdity of the situation. I am sorry I lost touch with Flynn over the years, but have many great memories of him. From reading the obituary, it seems like he had a great, fulfilling life. Please accept my sincere condolences.

Flynn was truly one of a kind and I will miss him. Death Is Nothing At All Henry Scott-Holland By Henry Scott-Holland
More Henry Scott-Holland Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner. All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before. How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again! Source:
