

Frank Okhiku

September 28, 1977 ~ May 19, 2025

Losing Frank Okhiku is truly heartbreaking. His kindness, warmth, and gentle spirit touched the lives of many. During this time of sorrow, I’m keeping his family and all who loved him in my thoughts. May his memory bring comfort, and may he rest peacefully.

I love you best friend forever I’m so deeply sorry for your loss and it saddens me that Lavaya had to experience this so early in life! God sent Frankie to be yours and Lavaya’s forever Angel and I’m thankful you did have the time you did with him. I know how happy you two were together. You know I’m right here for you for anything you may need! I love you best friend stay strong and keep the faith,,

I don’t know what to say or write but I still feel this is like a dream not reality. I know FRANK since 2018, where we meet in my first job in Provo which was a construction/remodeling. Infact , FRANK was the one who took me to DMV (2018) in Provo to register (plate number) in my first car. We eat together and drink together every weekend in my rented basement. Myself, TONY,SAMMY and FRANK. His nickname is FRANKOLALA-ISI-MIYAKE. FRANK and myself share similarity together because leaving our loved ones (kids) back home with the hope of bringing them one day to come live together in this country. Wellllll , we are nothing in the hands of the God he alone know best . R.I. P frankolala -isi-Miyake
