I'm so very sorry for your loss. May God make this hard transition easy for you all. You're all in my heart and prayers. Gary was so awesome, he reminded me of my dad and I couldn't have asked for better friend(Kasey). He was non judgemental and I always felt welcome at his home. Thank you Gary for giving me an awesome friend.

My Heart is Broken to hear about Gary’s passing. Gary was one of the few friends I had where time had no barrier. A lot of time has passed by between talking but the friendship has always been there. Gary and I grew up together and were best friends from Junior High on. We went through a lot together. Fun times. Gary and his family always made me feel like part of theirs hanging out at there house as kids. My Prayers go out to Laurie, the kids, grandkids and his Mom. Rest in piece Gary. I’m sure there are awesome roads for you to ride up there.

Our hearts go out to you all. I can't find the words to express how much it hurts to think of your loss and how you feel right now, I know that pain all too well and wouldn't wish it on my worst enemy. I, personally, only had the pleasure of meeting him in person the one time.. But between the little times I got to talk with him and the stories I've heard, he was a good man. I hope you can find peace knowing he's not in pain anymore and although I know he would rather be here with you all, I guarantee he's having a great time with his brother! I bet they finally found a buffet they can't clear out! If y'all need anything at all, please don't hesitate to call. Sending our biggest hugs and all our love. Zach, Tiffany and Anthony

Lorrie, My deepest sympathy to you and your family. The Great Gary Hadley of San Rafael High School was a good and kind man. I was sad until I realized he is in a better place than we are. He will be greatly missed by all those he left behind. John 16:22 “So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again, and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.” Audrey

Not a day goes by that we don’t think of this wonderful man, we love and miss him so much! My grandma Lorrie is the strongest women I know, but this is a lot for any person to take on no matter how strong you are. It’s okay to laugh, cry, smile, sob, and miss him. Our hearts will never forget the wonderful person he is! We miss you grandpa!!

Lorrie and family, I am so sorry for the loss of an amazing guy Gary. He was always good to me and loved teasing me every time he was around. I will never forget him telling Wendy and Tyler to go hide cuz the Ogre was coming. That name never went away. I am happy he would still call me that after all these years. I am thankful for being a part of your family’s lives throughout the last almost 30 years. He was truly a great guy. I understand in so many ways how you guys are feeling. It’s especially hard seeing both my kids go through loosing another grandparent in just a few months. They both was way to young to go. I know we will get to be with them one day. May Gary RIP and may your family get through everything that comes with loosing your loved one. If you ever need anything just know I am here. Stay strong and love with all your heart ❤■.
