Gene “is” a magnificent man, filled with creativity, strength, and love. He found nuance in everything, with an inquisitive mind and sincerity. He’s larger than life in every way… a beautiful man with compassion, a sense of adventure, and dignity. I will never ever forget this man and share my gratitude for having known him. Juliette

We are so sorry for your sudden loss of your amazing husband. It was hard to believe it happened so fast. I am so happy I had the pleasure to visit with him the Friday before he passed. Gary reminded me of what Gene once said when we were talking about how we each met our spouses. He said that he first met you while out dancing. He said (Gene) the minute you put your arms around him it felt like a cozy warm blanket. ■Prayers for you and your little beautiful family!!Keep all your wonderful memories in your heart. ❤■ Love You Lisa!

Lisa and family, my thoughts are with all of you. Im deeply sorry for loss. Gene was an incredible man. He had a way with his charming, down-to-earth, straightforward personality, and infectious smile you could feel through the phones, to get just about anyone to agree to anything! When Gene was in full conversation, our team would just stop whatever we were doing to admire and cheer him on. He was also such a great friend. He genuinely cared and took an interest in getting to know you (really get to know you) astrologically and all. He was wise, thoughtful, so funny, and he LOVED Lisa more than anyone loves anything. Then he became a Papa— gentle giant. He melted with those kids. Gene, I will always cherish our time working and laughing together (lots of laughing). You’re missed more than you know. Thank you for the great times. -Smurfette (nickname from Gene)

Lisa, First things first…We are so beyond grateful that we found each other as friends & we are equally grateful that you and Gene found each other and created an epic love story beyond imagination, and an amazingly wonderful family. You have generously shared your adventures and love with so many. we have to say that Gene's passing seems unreal. Because he possesses such an immortal presence & stature . We love you and your family so much! RaNita, Randy, John, Cere (the beautiful), and Zen (the awesome kid).
