

Jerry Malcolm Blair

March 11, 1953 ~ January 31, 2026

I didn’t know Uncle Jerry was Catholic. Our family is also catholic. It’s been years since I’ve seen or spoke to Uncle Jerry but will always remember him as kind and funny. Please accept these heartfelt condolences from our family. Peter, Jennifer, Jordan, Arianna and Giada Pontoni

It was such a great opportunity to know and care for Gerry at the VA! Such a fun guy with a great sense of humor. I shared so many laughs with him and will never forget him. I will miss him letting me know what is going on in the news and watching a cheesy Hallmark movie with him. I miss him already but so happy that he is reunited with his beloved Vivian. He missed her so much and talked about her often. He missed his dogs and I'm sure they greeted him. He brought a lot of joy to us! He loved his kids and appreciated going out with them. He was proud of his kids and loved when they decorated his room for holidays. Grateful for the opportunity to know and love him! So happy you are free and with your loved ones!! RIP
