

Gladys Marjorie (Maggie) Leon

April 24, 1935 ~ November 5, 2025

Gladys is and was an amazing woman. She raised such strong children along with her husband Gustavo. She was such a kind and loving person. She knew when to be tough in her own way. You could see it in her beautiful eyes how she was feeling. She was the strongest woman I knew. She may be gone but she will never be forgotten. She is with her husband finally getting there quiet time back.

Nana was such a sweet and beautiful soul. She will be missed terrible by those who were lucky enough to have been touched by her kindness and joy. Papa has already welcomed her into his loving arms in heaven. And hopefully one day we'll see their smiling faces again.

I can’t believe that I just noticed this almost a year later. How we loved your mom and dad. Gus and Gladys were the best of neighbors in Granite. We enjoyed them anytime we could visit, be it in the yard or home. What wonderful folks. Many blessings all of you in the years to come .
