

Grant Emo Vander Veur

August 24, 1955 ~ May 5, 2025

---

Linda and Family, I'm so sorry for the loss of your dear sweet eternal companion, friend, father and grandfather. Your thoughts and prayers are aligned with mine at this time. May the Lord hug and hold your hands together. With much love, Sheri

- Sheri Dye

---

Dear Linda, my friend and co-worker, my sincere and heartfelt condolences on the loss of your sweetheart and companion. I know you see him everywhere, whenever your eyes fall on something that was his, or something he used, or something he gave you. As a prophet has said, "The only way to take pain out of death is to take love out of life." That is so true. It's just a dog-on-darn thing we have to go through, but it's a heart-softener which allows the Savior to carry us. I love you and know you are, and will be supported. Many hugs!

- Susan Gonzalez

---

My deepest condolences the family. It was a shock to me. Very very sorry .

- Herman Ruseler

---

Linda and family, sending our thoughts and prayers. We enjoyed your friendship when we were neighbors.

- Erin Young Jeff Young

---

My condolences

- Rosita emo

---

Sorry for your loss at least he's not hurting no more if you need anything let me know he was a good man

- Spring Malone

---

We are very sad to learn of Grant's passing. We really enjoyed the time we were fortunate enough to have had with him. Linda, we are very sorry. -Steve & Ruthann

- Steve & Ruthann Penman

---

Dear Linda and family. I was sad to hear about your husband/father's death. We were not notified in time to attend the funeral. I'm so grateful for our years of friendship. I want you to know that I am praying for your comfort during this difficult time. Love, Nancy Wright

- Nancy Wright

---

Dear Linda and family, I was so sorry to hear of Gran't passing. You will greatly miss him. I always remember him being very kind and friendly. It was a pleasure having your family in the stake. I personally appreciate the service and friendship that you both gave so willingly. I hope that you will feel hope and peace as you consider Heavenly Father's eternal plan. We are unable to be at the service but want you to know that we are thinking of you at this difficult time. Our love, Richard and Laurel Allred

- Richard Allred

---

We are so sorry to hear of Emo's passing ! We know he's a lucky man to go on to the next estate. Little Brother has lived a good life always helping others. We ask Heavenly Fathers blessings on Linda and family that they can get the comfort and strength through the coming months. As Emo always said 'The Church is True'

- Reinje Benj Rains

---

To the entire Vander Veur family, we send our condolences on the passing of Grant. One of life's most difficult moments is saying "goodbye" to a loved one. Because of our knowledge of the Plan of Salvation, we know that Grant is in a better place and not restrained by any physical ailments. We also know that he has had a joyful reunion with his parents and family members. Sally and I have had the privilege of sharing five grandchildren with Grant and Linda. We feel so blessed when Michelle, whose name means "who is like God,"-an accurate description of her, joined our family when she married our son, Gary. Their five children knew Grant as "opa," the Dutch word meaning "gramps" or "grandpappy." Because of Grant's Dutch heritage, at each birthday party we sing "Lang zal ze leven" and end with the cheer, "Hiep, Hiep, Hoera." Before each meal, someone quickly says, "Eet smakelijk!" or "enjoy your meal." Each Christmas, the family celebrates the First Day of Christmas and the Second Day of Christmas, acknowledging Sinterklaas as Saint Nick. We rejoice in the fact that "families are forever" and that we can be reunited in the next life.

- Terry and Sally Tomlinson

---

To the entire Vander Veur family, we send our condolences on the passing of Grant. One of life's most difficult moments is saying "goodbye" to a loved one. Because of our knowledge of the Plan of Salvation, we know that Grant is in a better place and not restrained by any physical ailments. We also know that he has had a joyful reunion with his parents and family members. Sally and I have had the privilege of sharing five grandchildren with Grant and Linda. We feel so blessed when Michelle, whose name means "who is like God,"-an accurate description of her, joined our family when she married our son, Gary. Their five children knew Grant as "opa," the Dutch word meaning "gramps" or "grandpappy." Because of Grant's Dutch heritage, at each birthday party we sing "Lang zal ze leven" and end with the cheer, "Hiep, Hiep, Hoera." Before each meal, someone quickly says, "Eet smakelijk!" or "enjoy your meal." Each Christmas, the family celebrates the First Day of Christmas and the Second Day of Christmas, acknowledging Sinterklaas as Saint Nick. We rejoice in the fact that "families are forever" and that we can be reunited in the next life.

- Terry and Sally Tomlinson