The enthusiasm and love for life Greg shared with the world will live forever in all of us who had the privilege of knowing him. And his contagious sense of humor and the “prankster” in him will forever bring a smile to our face. We will miss you Gregory. So very very much.

I haven't seen him since he was little boy. What a special cousin and family. The Lord has a special mission before the second coming. Glad I got to be around him even for a short time. Always to be remembered and loved by even those that have passed on. My Mother adore him. Thank Greg and we love you.

We were a very young family when we moved into the McKinley Ward. I will always be so grateful for how Grandpa Taylor welcomed us, and served my family and my children. For nine years, he treated my kids as if they were his own grandchildren. What a blessing he was to us. He is a wonderful man, who was always so warm and kind. We love you.

- Jessica Berrett

It has been years since I left the McKinley Ward. Greg did a great job as the Executive Secretary. We send our heartfelt condolences to his family and friends.

Greg, you will be missed lots of hearts are filled with sadness. Not many people on earth have given the joy you gave to so many. May the heavens hold you close.

- Marjean

Heaven has welcomed "Home" a valiant and faithful son. The example of love, warmth and brotherhood lives on. Greg will always hold a special place in our hearts and lives. He knew how to make you feel special. Always welcoming you into his home and stopping whatever he was doing to focus on you. His laughter, stories and humor drew a huge circle to include you. Mardean, we love you so much and wish we could put our arms around you, hold your hand and cry with you. Maybe we can feel that Greg is enjoying being with our own son, Gregg and having a laugh or two. With the Plan of our Heavenly Father, we know this time of mourning can be a blessing too. We reflect often of times together, but know one day of being reunited. May you find the joy and comfort during your separation from him. He lives because of this Plan. Greg has passed and graduated to the next level. We must work until our time. Greg will continue to watch over you and you will feel his presence many times as the veil is thin. We testify of the blessings that can be yours as you are comforted. Know you are in our thoughts. We love you too. Sending hugs now.

- Delbert and Mary Rushton

Mardean, we are so sorry for your loss. We need to start thinking of death as a graduation from this life to something g much better. Without all the hardships of this life. Although it is so hard for the ones left behind. We wish we could be there with you, but neither of us can drive in Salt Lake City. Know our prayers are with you. Love Del and Deb and the whole bunch.

Mardean, I have a spare bedroom in Burley where you are welcome any time. I'll send a card or e-mail with my address. It is hard after spending so many years alone to go back to living on our own. You did it once and you can do it again. A cousin and friend. Marcia Bair

- Marcia Bair

Mr dear Mardean, my heart is broken for you. Greg's loss has to be so hard on you. I am here to help you in any way that I can. Greg was the best big brother anyone could ever ask for. Never a harsh word. He kept us laughing and kept our spirits up through many trials and tribulations in our lives. He helped so many people in so many ways, family friends, and even strangers. He brought happiness wherever he went. I'm so happy he is at peace and without pain and on the other side with his loving family. I will miss him every day until I see him again. ■❤■
