

Lynn Kimball Jones Backman

March 19, 1944 ~ February 5, 2026

Such a beautiful soul. She will be missed in this life.

- Micah Kimball

We were saddened to hear about your loss. Please accept our heartfelt condolences during this difficult time. We cannot imagine the pain you are feeling, but we want you to know that our thoughts are with you. May you find comfort in the love and support of family and friends and in the cherished memories you hold. With deepest sympathy, Lacy and Paula Croft

So so sorry to hear of Lynn's passing Jim. We know she was a bright light in your life as well as in the lives of many others. May the Lord bless and comfort you, and may the many good memories you two made together strengthen you and your families.

I will always remember your kindness and love to me, with Uncle Brent and Uncle Jim. Thank you for all those Thanksgiving and Christmas get togethers after Grandma Kimball could no longer do them, and after mom was gone. You continued a feeling of family that had long been absent for me. I love how you loved with no judgment, your lovely and sweet spirit, your fun and playful personality. You are now with Uncle Brent, dad, Uncle Delmar (also healed) grandma and grandpa, and most importantly with our Savior. Your memories and personality are restored. May you feel free, and know that many people love you here, as I know they do there. Sending a heavenly hug. Know that I will miss you beyond words! Aunt Lynn, you are the best!

Jim, Glenda and I send condolences for the passing of Lynn. The few times I met her she was so much fun and upbeat but she beat me in RAGE. I won’t forget. She brought you a lot of love. We will keep you in our prayers. Our Savior Jesus Christ has her in his care now. We ask him to bring you comfort. Bill Watkins

Jim: I just found the obituary for your wife. It brought back memories both of Cambridge and, later, other intersections of our lives. I hope the memories of your years together will carry you through the immediate sorrow of her passing. TK
