My condolences to your family. Through all manner of strife you have been amazing. May you have peace at this time of your father’s passing.

I met David at the library, where he would often be doing genealogy. We would talk about fudge and even exchanged some recipes. I talked to him a couple of times even after the libraries closed. I was surprised when I happened to learn of his passing. I'm greaful I was able to meet him and know that all the people that he touched during his time here on Earth, will be able to see him again some day.
