We have always loved Hal since our meeting as ward members of the 12th Ward. Hal was always an inspiration to us and the light of love and the gospel always shone outward. Jane, our hearts go out to you at this time and may your memories be strong and uplifting as you grieve your loss. We love you and your wonderful family....especially our dear connection to the Cannon's. love always, Bob and Jann Bunnell

A long long time buddy of mine and tennis partner too. The end is hard but the beginning is wonderful and he's graduated and is brand new. I'll be seeing him sooner than later. We're the same age so we'll have a lot to reminisce over. Jane, we love you just as much and during the sad times I hope you can find great happiness in your lifetime of. memories. My love for you both
