

Herc Ottenheimer

August 3, 1956 ~ January 15, 2021

Beaufully written, full of Herc and a wonderful portrait of him, his friends and his music. He is already greatly missed, a piece of our hearts taken with him for whatever lies ahead. I will always treasure our friendship. I was so lucky to have him as my dear cousin. Love to you, Cath, always a dearly loved member of our family.
