My deepest condolences to all of Margie's many loved ones. I mostly remember her from when I was a little girl, but I know she had a huge impact on my family for good. It was so wonderful to read about Aunt Margie's amazing life and to know that she touched so many throughout her life. Diane, Julie, Wendy, and Kelly: I love you all and am so grateful to have such sweet memories with you. You are beautiful, brilliant, amazing women and I know your mom had to be so proud of each of you. You and your families with will be in my thoughts and prayers in the days to come. Families ARE Forever!!!

I'm sad to see that Margie passed away. She was my teacher at Bryman School 30 years ago, I haven't seen or spoken to her since then, but she left a forever impression on me. She was such a good, fun teacher, but she also expected hard work and respect. I took that with me and that has helped me over the years in all I do. My deepest condolences to her family!

John and I are deeply sorry at the passing of Margi. I worked with her for seven years and she lived a couple of streets away. I knew her Mum and Dad and her brothers and sister. She was 16 when she came to work in the office. I remember her meeting Daryl and her excitement of falling in love. Through all the years of living in Utah we stayed in touch. I have such lovely memories which I treasure. Love to all the family at this sad time xxxx

I knew Margie in Leicester back in 1966-68, when we used to travel to church together on the bus. She was confident, out-going and very much a family person, always talking about her parents, sister and brothers. She came to see me in Leicester in 1980 when she was visiting her mum & dad, after I moved back to UK from Oklahoma. She was a proud mum of her three or perhaps four girls then and full of happiness about her life in Utah. I am shocked to see that she has died at such a young age, but her life sounds exactly what she would have wanted it to be, full of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, loving friends and family. Condolences to her family. Sally Bybee
