So, so heartbroken at the loss of your son. He looks and seems like such a bright light and amazing young man. Mental illness is real and we are so sorry for your deep and horrible loss. Praying angels will surround you at this hard time and you will feel Holden near as he will now be your guardian angel from beyond this life. Praying you feel loved by your community and so many who have never met you but are praying for you. Much love and concern being sent your way.

Holden, there's not a lot of ways to explain him. Because he's not like every other person in this world. When Holden stepped into my life. Everything changed. My mindset. My confidence. And most of all. My ability to feel love again. He is most definitely one of a kind. And I will forever, remember my soul mate. -always and forever- Zoe Caldwell
