To Uncle Kay and his Family, You have always been a rock and chosen wisely. Your life and your wife are and were the best. My dad was always proud to be your brother and spoke about how you and Ila Jean were reasons for him going to the Temple. He would have been sad about her passing but is now happy to greet her on the other side. My family offers condolences but because of the gospel knows you and your family will be comforted. My all of you know that we love you and wish you peace while grieving.

I am so sorry about Aunt Ila. She really was a devoted mother and wife. She loved her family so much. Jan, Bryan, Sheri, and Jill were her pride and joy followed by all of her adorable grandchildren. My deepest condolences. You are all in my prayers. Love, DeAnn

I was so sad to here of Ila’s passing. Oh how I loved & admired her. Kay, you are in our prayers. We love you dear friend. I wish we could have known sooner. Ila used to buy Avon from me & some of her grandchildren would come to my house to pick up or pay for her order. Such a beautiful family. I felt so close to Ila because we both only had one sister. We had a lot in common. Love MaryAnn & Mike Carter
