

Inez Mae Berg Chapman

March 7, 1923 ~ January 4, 2021

So glad Brad sent me message about your mother passing. I know you were a devoted daughter. She must have taught you well!! She seemed to be a vibrant lady. And you are just like her. Sending love to help with the loss. And hoping I has all been a good experience. Love you Barbara Paul and Peggy

We bid farewell to Inez Chapman, a wonderful daughter of God. May her family be comforted at this time and throughout the years to come. My sister was my hero and shall always be in my heart. We send our love to those who will have a void in their lives. May the Lord bless us all. Lynn and Marie Morgan

Inez was such a delightful woman. She passed along great wisdom when my mom first arrived at Sunrise and I was grateful for chats with me. My condolences to your family at this difficult time. I hope knowing she had a life well lived brings comfort in the days to come.

Oh, Barb! I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your dear mother. You look just like her!!! What a wonderful woman, mom, wife she was and what a great example for your kids. I can see several of her quailed reflected in your goodness and am so grateful for our association at Evergreen all those years!! I always knew I could count on your friendship and support! May God bless you and your family in the days to come. Love, Ginger Gunn

Wes and Inez are beloved of our family. He and Inez were always a joyful presence in our home during Christmas time when they would come to visit. Inez was such a happy person. I will always remember her and my mother visiting and laughing together. Our very heartfelt condolences to the Chapman and Berg families. She is truly a great lady.

I am Eileen Giles Berg's sister. I have known Inez for many years. I was always impressed by her loving kindness. She always talked about her girls with such pride and love. She had lived a long life and I am sure she is happy to be greeted by her loved ones. May you feel comfort and peace at her passing.

Such wonderful stories told today....loved the comments from Tyler, Brian and Whit and all they learned from their Grandmother. Hopefully, we all have a few more adventures to go before we arrive "skidding in sideways" to Heaven like your cute Mom.... Love to you all, SBC

Very nice service. I heard many times from many who spoke today that Inez was classy and elegant. I always remember that about her whenever they would come to visit. I remember her being very kind and gentle with an infectious laugh. It was great to hear all the wonderful stories about her and how loved she is by her entire family. She lived a good life. Blessings to you all!
