I do not know you Brittany but to let you know my heart breaks for you and your family. May you feel the Love and comfort of our Father in Heaven. May you be the voice for Izzy and all of us that suffered bullying

- Melissa Powell

There are no words to express our grief and sorrow for your devastating loss. Your family will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers through this journey. May you find peace and strength from family and friends, but the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will sustain you. Be encouraged in the Lord and in the power of His might. We love you and your family especially our (Mount Carmel Baptist Church) very own Miss Annette Cooper Nichols. Be Blessed!!!

- Pastor Carroll and Lady Cheryll Mills

Sending you so much love and praying for peace for you and your family. I did not know Izzy, but I stand with you and her. Such a beautiful soul lost too soon. <3

- SS

I saw the article about your beautiful daughter in People. I cannot imagine your pain; she looks like an Angel with a precious sunlit smile. Seeing her smile is what impelled me to send condolences. Surely, God has her wrapped in His loving embrace and will erase her pain and yours. I am heartbroken for you and your family and will remember her and your family in my prayers. What her school and those bullies did to your baby girl is criminal. I, for one, will remember your Izzy always. Her smile is in my heart. I hope you find peace.

- D Gilbert

God Bless your family during this time. She is still a happy girl in heaven with God. Stay strong she is okay.

- Wendy Howard

My deepest condolences goes out to the family and friends of this beautiful young lady. Bullying of any kind should be a criminal offense. My heart hurts knowing that Izzy was in such pain and nothing was done by school officials to help her. I will continue to support and pray for her family. I hope you get the justice and much needed peace from such a tragedy that you so deserve. May God be with you today and always.

- Jana Latcham

I've cried every day since I learned of the passing of Izzy. I want her family and friends to know that I think about them every day. And I will use my voice to help bring awareness to the circumstances that lead to her untimely passing. I will #StandWithIzzy today, and every day until we make meaningful change throughout all of Utah. Rest in peace sweet girl.

I didn’t know Izzy but I can’t stop thinking about her. I’m absolutely heartbroken about this. This weekend I will be having a conversation with my 10 and 8 year old children about Izzy, and suicide, and mental health and to teach them that there are people struggling with things that we can’t imagine. Please know there are so many who are devastated about her loss, mourning with you, and praying for the comfort of your family as you navigate this most difficult time.

I don’t know your family, I read your story online.. I’m so sorry for your loss. You’re daughter is beautiful and so is her soul. Additionally I’m so incredibly sorry for people who are inadequate and unkind. Also I’m continually devastated by our inability to protect children from hate while under the supervision of adults in a teaching environment. Thank you for sharing Izzy with me..

- Jean Maitre

To the family of such a beautiful daughter with a wonderful smile. You do not know me, however I wanted you to know how Isabella's story has touched my heart and soul. In reading about Izzy, I noticed that she believed in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Please keep in your thoughts, 2 Corinthians 1: (3) "Praised by the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, (4) who comforts us in all our trails so that we may be able to comfort others in all our trails so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trail with the comfort that we receive from God." Jehovah God hates death, he views it as an enemy. 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." He has a longing to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He yearns to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again. You, your family and community are in my thoughts and prayers. Peace and Blessings, Lisa C. McNair lcmcn1966@gmail.com

That beautiful little girl did not deserve to die. I live a long way away in Maryland, but as the mother of a daughter and the grandmother of a wonderful granddaughter--and as once a little girl who was teased terribly--I mourn her passing. I truly hope the school board and the people of her community will work together to make sure no child has to feel the pain that little Izzy must have felt. My deepest sympathy to her family.

- Judith Ireland

I am sending my condolences to you and I am a mother of disabled twins who went through alot in the granite district to where I ended up getting stabbed by one of the twins because of school. I hope that you get the support you seek now. Though it won't change what's happened.. my condolences....

I am heartbroken. Your daughter is beautiful. I know you are devastated at this time by this tragic failure of the school district to protect your daughter, but please hold them accountable for her death. I am so, so sorry. May she rest in everlasting peace

- Tom Bauer

My heart is breaking for your sweet, little angel and the suffering she endured; and for you at her loss. I have sent the Davis County Schools Superintendent a message and will follow up with a phone call to him and the governor's office on Monday urging that any teacher or administrator who perpetrates, tolerates or ignores bullying and racism, should be fired immediately. No child should have to endure racism and bullying. I will be praying that Christ will be with you and you will find peace and comfort in His Spirit. I will also pray for a change to happen in this world!
