Megan/Christian, What a beautiful remembrance of your little boy. I felt the love you had for him, and the life and joy that Jackson carried with him though I never met him. I hope I can hold mine a little tighter and be a little more patient to honor your incredibly difficult journey.

Christian and Meaghan, My heart goes out to you both and your beautiful family. Meaghan, you are a wonderful mother, and so very blessed. Jackson has his great Aunt Nelda, Uncle Bob, and Mikey, to love him and watch over him now. I see Jackson has your beautiful smile and cheeks; you were always a strong willed child and I have this wonderful memory of you at Grandpa Harwoods house where you were mad at your brother…… your eyes were hard set and your stance was defiant with your arms crossed. A kindred soul I would say…..I love your strength and know that you will get through this difficult time. I'm sending you all my love and strength from Idaho. I so wish I could be there but I know you have a large family who loves you and will guide you through. I love you dearly my cousin. Kymmie❤■

Jackson is a sweet boy who touched my heart. I feel so privileged to be one of the physicians who cared for him. The love surrounding Jackson in the hospital was so palpable and truly special. Jackson was able to provide the incredible gift of organ donation and I truly believe that he is the super hero he wanted to be! I hope for strength and peace for Jackson's family during this unthinkable time. May Jackson's memory be a beautiful blessing.

What a beautiful written obituary for your sweet baby boy Jackson. He was the cutest and sweetest boy. I'm so sorry for your loss. Sometimes there just isn't words strong enough for the sympathy I want to express. I love you all. I will continue to pray for strength and comfort for your sweet family. May God hold you in his hands at this time. Sincerely, with lots of love! Julie Drachman -
