Much love and prayers for your little family. You are in the arms of your Father in Heaven. He loves you and will be with you through all the tears. I'm in the 7th Ward. You may not remember me, but I remember you and your sweet, beautiful face. I have lost a child and have stood in your shoes. I know that you are not alone. May peace fill your hearts as you endure the coming days.

I have only gotten to know you as the AMAZING speech teacher that my students love to go with every week, but I just wanted to say I am so sorry for your loss! The pictures of your sweet boy bring a smile to my face and tears to my eyes. I speak for my whole class when I say we love you and wish we could take away this hurt.

Emily, Words cannot express how sorry I am for the loss of your son. I was at the service and didn't get a chance to give you a hug. It was such a beautiful program and the spirit was very present. I want to thank you for being my son's speech teacher. It's not easy for him to connect with adults, as he's extremely shy, but he has connected with you. I will continue to pray for you and your family. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you.

- Ashley E Olsen
