

Jane Bassler

October 8, 1924 ~ January 18, 2021

Jane Bassler was one of the most influential teachers I ever had. She encouraged me so much, and I've no doubt she is partially responsible for my Ph.D. I hope she knew how much she affected the lives of children. I'll never forget her.

Thank you to my husband Christopher Kirkham for giving me the honor and great privilege of getting to know his Dear Aunt Jane. I so throughly enjoyed our conversations and surely grew from Jane's awesome insite , love and wisdom. Our earthly world has lost and Heaven has gained.

I just loved Mrs.Bassler one of my many favorite teachers in 5th grade at municipal in 1975.... I loved singing in her classes, she would have us all singing the old classic songs ❤I remember singing "All we are is Blowing in the Wind"... I think she once said it was one if her favorites? Condolences to the Family , she was a wonderful lady. - Genae

I am so very sorry to hear of Mrs. Bassler's passing. I have thought of her so much in the past year. I drove past her home in Roy and memories flooded back from Kindergarten. She was the best teacher I ever had. She taught me in Kindergarten and 6th grade at Municipal Elementary. She was so fair, kind and somehow kept us all on task. She was lovely. I was able to see her years later while employed at Merrill Lynch. She came into our office with her husband. He was such a character. I hope she had a wonderful, happy, healthy life. She deserved all of the best things. My heart goes out to you all for her loss. Sending prayers and love.

Dear Aunt Jane, Thank you for all the many years of love, caring, generosity and true friendship. I am missing our visits via phone and in person. We have had many fun and happy memories. I am very happy you are now in Heaven with Uncle Dave and all the other many family members and friends. You were always so happy, positive, fun and very wise. You truly knew how to work with all the lovely children you were teaching. They learned so much from you in so many ways. I am looking forward to being with you and Dave again. Love Eternally from your Nephew, Mike (Michael K. Jarvis)

Dear Aunt Jane, I will miss hearing all of your wonderful stories and your great advice. You were always happy and a joy to be around. You always lifted my spirits and made me feel good about myself. I am sad for us not having you here, but I am happy for you to be able to be with Uncle Dave and all of the family and your many friends again. I love you very much!!! Love always, Rosemary
