

Janet Carolyn Secor Vincent

April 6, 1937 ~ March 22, 2022

I have fond memories of Janet dancing on the stage at East High School. Especially in the Christmas assembly. I can still hear the music. I am sad to read her last years were so difficult. Sincerely Karen Passey Holt

We have always loved and admired Janet in so many ways. She was a wonderful Relief Society President and was an excellent teacher for many years. We were delighted by how she brought humor into her lessons by including cartoon characters Calvin and Hobbs. We will miss her beautiful smile and enduring friendship but know she has gone on to a great reward for her diligent service and dwells now with our Savior, Jesus Christ, and is united with her family and loved ones. All our love to you Garr and family. Faun Marshall & family
