

Jason Castleton Cleary

July 2, 1970 ~ December 12, 2020

Jason and I worked together shortly at the IRS, but when I tell you we became best buddies. Not only was he smart & kind, he poured so much love into me. He always told me how much he appreciated my work and how I was a bright light in our organization. His passing is a loss to our staff and to my heart. My sympathy and prayers to his family. He will truly be missed.

My wife Marilyn and I are deeply saddened by the loss of Jason. I had the privilege of working with Jason as a team member working for IRS DevOps. He was a great person, a great coworker with a great sense of humor and he will be missed all. It was my pleasure to have known him. Our hearts and prayers go out to Jason's family , his girlfriend and his circle of friends .

I worked with Jason at the IRS and we bonded over being veterans. He was proud to have served his country and always had a laugh for you. You're definitely gone too soon, but I pray your family has peace and will hold onto the happier times. Rest in Heaven. KC

Jason was a important link in my life to his mother Jane who was my best friend dating back to 1957. I watched all three of Janes sons, James (Jamie to me), Michael and Jason as infants grow into very successful adults. Jason passing is a loss way too soon for all of us. I send my love to both Jim and michael their family’s and also Jason’s children.

Sending love to all friends and family who knew and cared for Jason. His unexpected passing leaves a hole too big to fill especially with all the loss endured this year. Here's to courage as we face into the sadness, bargaining, denial, disbelief and acceptance grief brings. Jason is my cousin on my father's (Kenneth Castleton) side of the family; Janie's youngest sibling and brother. Jason was generous to come to my wedding in 1999 when we didn't have much of a relationship, and we were so grateful for the gesture . My husband Brian and brother David and his wife Amy and I are saddened by the loss of Jason.

Jason you will truly be missed! To know you is to LOVE you and DevOps is very blessed to have experienced a beautiful spirit such as yours. The days ahead will not be easy, but the comfort of knowing that you are in heaven embracing the angels above with your infectious laughter makes us smile. May the impact that you've made at the IRS never be forgotten as we are thankful for all that you have taught us. I will miss our personal chats, your impeccable work ethic, and the awesome stories that you share...but most of all I will miss YOU! Thanks for allowing me the opportunity to get to know you and may you Rest In Peace always! Love, Your DevOps Buddy Shanita

We were at Wharton with Jason and Heidi. Rich often says that Jason was the smartest person at the MBA program and I always thought he was one of the warmest people I ever met. His exuberance, genuine humor and loving behavior made him a dear friend. We had many nights of laughing until our stomachs hurt. He was a loving and engaged parent and someone we will miss greatly.

I just learned of Jason's passing. What a tremendous loss. I went to Wharton with him, but didn't know him well there. We got to know each other after school, when we both lived in Houston. He had such a contagious enthusiasm for life. Unfortunately, I lost touch with him over the last decade, but I have some fun and wonderful memories with him. I'll miss him greatly, as I'm sure you all will as well.
