We miss you as neighbors and friends. We miss our visits each month. We are so sorry Myra and family for your loss. I know he was hoping he would be here in February for his grandson. Love you!!

Rest in peace uncle Jay. You will always be remembered as the guy ALWAYS on the go, and someone who no matter the cost or consequence would do absolutely anything for anyone, You will not be forgotten uncle Jay. I know you will always be there watching over your girls and their kids.
