

Jeanne Brock Pulliam

September 13, 1950 ~ December 24, 2024

I was so shocked to hear of Jeanne's passing. I wish to send my sympathy to all her family. Also I want them to know how much I loved her growing up. I remember being blown away when she performed a piano solo for Concerto Night with the school orchestra. And she excelled at the violin as well. I hope you all remember her talents, and love, and zest for life. She was so proud of her children. When I left Salt Lake City to attend college, I was only able to see her infrequently, I'm sorry to say. Please know our memories will be with me forever.

I always wished I could play the viola as wonderfully as she played all of her instruments. I always tried to be a good friend to her because she was just the best friend to me. When she moved to Texas I missed her, now I will always miss her. Love you always Jeanne, your friend Buffie

I was one of Jeanne friends . I talked to her daily and loved her so much. She was a artist in everything she did. She was so proud of all her children and grandchildren. Always wishing them a happy and generous life. She didn't know what hate was, she was generous to a fault. The couple of weeks before her passing, she was at peace with herself, she was organizing her life and felt she finally had found herself. I am so proud of her and the many accomplishments she made.

I have fond memories of Jeanne with her violin walking to Bryant Jr High. She was a very sweet girl I hope she had a great life. I'm sorry we all didn't keep track of each other!

Though we parted years ago, I never really stopped loving her. I pray she is at peace.
