Dearest Jenny and precious family of Jebb. Our hearts are with you at your time of loss. We are so very sorry and words just can’t express how we feel. What an amazing man he was and he will still live on in our hearts as a gifted servant and example to others, devoted, loving, and caring man. We are so very blessed to have known him and are here for you for anything you need. I still make my caramel sauce the way he told me, waiting for the wisps of smoke to come up from the pan before taking it off the heat.

- Voeun and Kristen Veth

So sorry Jenny. He was a wonderful person. I am out camping and can't make the funeral. Will be in touch later.

There is no great sorrow in death without great love in life. I didn’t know Jebb well but I’m sure he is safely in the arms of Jesus as Jesus is our comfort and our peace. I met Jenny and Jebb through Royal Family Kids camp….such giving, loving, extraordinary people! I love you Jenny and I’m quite sure myriad people love you too.

I’m praying for all of you, family and friends. RIP Brother Jebb until we meet again.:
