

Jenaveve Arnoldus

January 31, 1953 ~ November 28, 2022

I am an attorney who attended a mediation course taught by Jenaveve. I found her to be very insightful intellectually and also a very warm, amiable, hospitable, empathetic personality extremely well suited to teaching and exemplifying the role of mediator and peacemaker. Her sudden death was a shock and a reminder to me not to take our associations in life for granted because we never know when such will end. I will miss Jeneveve as a friend and I know her absence will leave a big hole in the Utah legal community. My condolences to both her family and to her colleagues and others who relied on her contributions at work and in the community.

So sorry to hear this news! I am a lawyer and participated in several mediations with Jenaveve- she always did a great job and seemed tireless to get to agreements. It is a difficult task and she was always so warm and encouraging with people- I know they felt heard which is a big part of being a successful mediator. She will be missed!

I never met her in person, only though zoom, but I could felt he kind spirit and love

I was in Jenaveve's law school class and was thrilled when she took over Utah Dispute Resolution. She was such a kind, wise, talented, and fun person. It was always a joy to be in her company. So sad for her loss!

Jenaveve was my boss and one my biggest supporters. It hurts to not have her with us anymore and to still feel like she is a call away. Jenaveve thought the best about people, she was kind, she was caring, she was selfless. I think her mission in life was to be a helping hand, a listening ear, and a teacher of humanness and moral goodness. To me, she was an angel in one of the hardest times of my life. Jenaveve built the best team at UDR and she was not only our leader but our inspiration. She could figure out anything, and she fully immerse herself in her mission and work. UDR was renewed and nurtured by her. We, her team, are so lucky to have had her! Thank you Jenaveve, you'll forever be in my heart.

I am so grateful to have had the privilege of growing up with Jenaveve. I remember her example of piety and perseverance. She was lovely, talented, intelligent, as well as spirited and I will miss her greatly. My deepest sympathy goes to her daughters; Jessica and Amy. We will all be reunited someday with our dear Savior, and I look forward to that beautiful day.

I had the privilege of working closely with Jenaveve at Utah Dispute Resolution in 2019 and 2020. She was an unfailing source of optimism and encouragement to those around her. She faced challenges with a can-do attitude and worked diligently to make UDR a welcoming and supportive place. Besides her charisma, Jenaveve was also quick to show compassion and care to those around her. And her laugh was magnetic! She really did light up the room wherever she was. I am truly sorry to her family for your loss. May your memories of her stay bright and keep you warm during the coming weeks, months, and years.

I was so stunned and saddened to learn of this today. I knew Jenaveve many years ago, and she had a special bright inner light that was such a pleasure to be around. I had a chance to be around her love for, and talent in, theater, a special treat for all those who were around it, too. I was at her home when I learned of my brother's suicide, and it's hard to imagine a better person to have been around; her sensitivity and kindness were the anchor I could hold on to that first day. This is now 2024, and while time does heal, there are still very hard days for those who loved her. I wish for them many joyous memories for those hard days, and peaceful hearts.
