We are so sorry for the loss of your beautiful Jenny. We send you our love ♥■ and prayers that you'll find comfort in the beautiful memories of her. I saw her a few weeks ago at the bagel shop and I had a fun chat with her. I will cherish that moment and reflect on the fun childhood friendship she had with Angela.

Sister Christian, oh, the time has come And you know that you're the only one to say, "Okay" Where you going? What you looking for? You know those boys don't want to play no more with you, it's true You're motoring What's your price for flight? In finding Mister Right You'll be alright tonight Babe, you know you're growing up so fast And mama's worryin' that you won't last to say, "Let's play" Sister Christian, there's so much in life Don't you give it up before your time is due, it's true It's true, yeah Motoring What's your price for flight? You got him in your sights You're diving through the night You're motoring What's your price for flight? In finding Mister Right You'll be alright tonight Motoring What's your price for flight? In finding Mr. Right You'll be alright tonight Motoring What's your price for flight? In finding Mister Right You'll be alright tonight Sister Christian, oh, the time has come And you know that you're the only one to say, "Okay" But you're motoring Yeah, motoring

I had the opportunity of going to Esthetician school with Jenny. She was such a kind, beautiful friend, and it breaks my heart to hear of her passing. I'm sending all my love, prayers, and deepest condolences to her parents, siblings, and sweet children. You are in my thoughts during this tender time.

I am so sorry to learn of this. If I remember correctly - Jennifer played tennis with 3 of my daughters. I remember her being everything this picture of her depicts: Kind and beautiful. You are in our prayers.

I am so sorry for the loss of Jenny. I know how much she was loved and adored by all who knew her, especially her family who she often expressed the sincerest gratitude for. I loved her beautiful way with words, especially when speaking about how much she loved her children and how much she loved being their mom. I will miss her sweet words and the positive perspective she shared.
