There are no words as to how this has effected me son. For so many years we fought this and to know you aren't here anymore leaves me at a loss. My heart hurts and I will miss you. Till I see you again one day. Muchos beso's mi nino. I love you.

Hey Bro, Martin, the last time I saw you was when you gave me a flower planter years ago and I’m returning the favor by making you four arrangements today ■ I Hope you like them, I know you’re at peace and until we meet again. Much love ■
