

Jesus "Jesse" Homero Cervantes Jr.

March 24, 1987 ~ September 28, 2024

We are and will continue to be so saddened by this loss, along with so many others. We love the Cervantes family and the open arms in which you have always welcomed us into your home/lives. We are thinking of all of you and hoping for peace and comfort through this difficult new chapter. Seeing how many lives Jesse has touched is a beautiful reminder of the truly wonderful man he was. Love you.

Jesse and Denise: I am so sorry to hear the news of the passing of "little Jesse". My heart aches for both of you and your entire family. I pray that God's love and comfort will be with you at this trying time. I hope that you can take comfort that you will at some time in the future you will be with him again.

One of his coworkers. Jesse was a fantastic coworker; always willing to help, go the extra mile, and had a contagious love for the Halloween season.

The Cervantes family holds a special place in my heart. I adore all of them and am so heart broken that “Little Jesse” was taken too early. Jesse was a light, I have so many good memories growing up with Rachelle, Jesse and Manny. I will forever treasure those memories■ love you Cervantes family!

My nephew, Jesse, was an extraordinary person. He embodied the greatest joy a mother could ever experience. The gift of a beautiful, talented, and generous son is a blessing beyond measure. Jesse was beautiful inside and out, with his striking blue eyes, perfect smile, and fun-loving, youthful spirit. I remember him this way and always will for his whole eternal life. He made such an impact on everyone he met. Children remain the most important part of our lives, always coming first and holding a place more significant than ourselves. A timeless imprint of who we are, and to lose that is an indescribable sorrow. Jesse was fun, funny, and incredibly talented. He made me laugh, and he was so sweet and lovable, always sharing his beautiful smile and funny expressions. When I think about him with his family, his love for them was undeniable and profound. He had a remarkable way of making people feel treasured when they were around him. The moments I was fortunate to spend with Jesse are a part of me and will stay with me forever. He was a cherished light in the lives of all of us, bringing warmth, joy, and love to all who knew him. His presence will be profoundly missed by the entire family. There were so many extraordinary memories from the time he was a baby to when he grew up, married his stunning wife Brittany, the love of his life, and had his own perfect son, Alfie. He started his beautiful family, something so precious, and I thank God that he lives on through his son. I treasure the fact that I was a part of his life, the honor was mine to have. I only wish those moments with him could have continued for the rest of my life. Although the loss is tremendous and irreparable, I have a sense of peacefulness in my heart knowing that he is with our beautiful mother in heaven, forever watching over us as our angels and protectors. My heart aches from his loss, but I carry his spirit with me, an infinite reflection of the best in all of us. I love you sweetly and dearly, from this life and on.
