I loved Toby Pingree. He was a true Renaissance Man. As his former Bishop we had many lively discussions about gospel items and church issues. Toby was about 14 years older than me. One of my favorite memories of him - About 15 years ago we both competed in a AARP Triathlon. It was a shorter sprint triathlon. Toby was a good swimmer and I was awful. We were about even on the bike. I tried to catch him on the running portion but I could not. Toby dusted me. We laughed about this competition over the years. The world, our ward and us his friends are better off for knowing Toby. Our thoughts, prayers and love to Phyllis and the family. Rex Thornton

Sister Pingree & Family, I was sorry to hear of Bishop Pingree's passing and wanted to express my gratitude for his sweetness, support, and love. Bishop Pingree will always have a tender place in my heart. Thank you for sharing him with us. He was a blessing to the Walnut Creek Third ward. I can't share the many stories because there truly are too many.

We loved Toby, and love Phyllis, and have enjoyed many times of searching dialogue with Toby about things spiritual and worldly. He was a great example of searching and learning and applying the "building" principles of life and love. He will be missed.

Such a fascinating biography! We learned much more about Toby than we never knew! He was one of a kind and always kept us on our toes to see if we believed what we thought we believed. We'll miss his quick wit and his never-ending quest for the truth. We will miss him!

Dear Phyllis and family, This year has been difficult for you with the pandemic and illness of your husband and father. He has led a beautiful and full life with so many talents and experiences. I am so blessed to have had the opportunity to get acquainted with him. He will be remembered as one of the faithful members of our ward. I send my sympathy with your loss. Love, Charlotte

Phyllis, I am so sorry for your loss. After reading about him, I realize that you and he shared a wonderful life together. Traveling and living so many places brought joy and many friends to you. You were always one of my favorite cousins and I enjoyed visiting at your home in Holladay. I also enjoyed your graduation from Olympus High School. May you find peace in knowing you will see Toby again and share an eternity of love. It is so good to be in contact with you again. Much love to you and your family. Patty Burbidge Stevens

Aunt Phyllis, Tim, Geoff, Greg, Allison, Matt and Mark, I am so grateful to have known, loved, and been loved by and mentored by Toby Pingree. UT was one of the truly great men of this world. Brett and I are so grateful for his example of loving and serving and being a force for good through his entire life. We are better for knowing him...and we appreciate the great tax advice too! Uncle Toby and Aunt Phyllis have been and always will be heroes of mine. Our love and prayers are with all of you. The obituary and tribute video were both so beautiful and brought tears to my eyes as I was again reminded of all the wonderful things Uncle Toby stood for and represented. We will miss him. ♥■ Love to you all!! Sara and Brett Graham

- Sara Graham

Dear Geoff, Greg, and family: Heartfelt best wishes to you all. Mr. Pingree had two amazing sons. May the circle be unbroken. Ernie and Diana

- Ernest Suarez

I think of Toby as one of the greatest mentors of my younger self, when he was my Bishop in Walnut Creek. We talked about a lot of issues in our times together, we didn't always agree, but we understood each other. Sincere best wishes to Phyllis and the family.

I'm so going to miss Toby. There are very few people in this world who can combine true faith with honest introspection and reflection. I admire Toby for his courage. He has been willing to honestly examine his faith and his religion while remaining committed. He was and is an authentic, real, genuine person. He and his wonderful wife Phyllis have been key influences in my life. I'm better for having been in his presence. My very deepest love to you Phyllis at this tender time. Chandra and I love you and Toby and are so sad for your loss.

What a beautifully written obituary. I am most impressed with all Toby did throughout his life. Dear Phyllis, I have loved and admired you for so many years and my heart and prayers are with you. I have been blessed by your indomitable spirit, your joyful leadership and love of life and people. I think I honestly know how you feel at this moment because I have experienced it. It is a feeling of pure, deep joy that someone you so dearly love has been released to go forth untethered by the frailties of this life.. I will be with you virtually as this impressive man is honored. on Friday. Loving you, Joan Peterson

Desde Esmeraldas-Ecuador envío mis condolencias a la hermana Phyllis Pingree y a toda su familia. Conocí a Frederick Pingree en julio de 1982 cuando llegó a Esmeraldas-Ecuador como presidente de la Misión Ecuador Quito. En aquel tiempo yo era un joven presidente de Rama y la primera impresión que tuve de él fue: "es un presidente norteamericano-latino", pues, su amistad y amor hacia nuestra gente era muy expresiva. Su liderazgo dejó una huella en la vida de los misioneros, líderes y miembros de nuestra ciudad, una huella que aún hoy es de mucho significado en nosotros.

Our Condolences, from everyone here at Squire. What an amazing man. I worked with Toby and consider him a true friend and mentor. He lived a great life with an amazing wife and family. We will miss him! What a great obituary to honor a great man. Thank you. So many more things I learned about this amazing man.

I haven't seen Toby for almost 20 years now, I think since Gene England's funeral. That's fitting, since Toby and Gene had a huge effect on me, both of them showing utter devotion to the truth—both digging for it and staying faithful to it once found. As a teenager in Walnut Creek, I always felt I could talk to Toby, and he would hear it without judging, as Greg said. He talked to God in the same way, not expecting to be judged, and his voice when he prayed out loud was something that everyone who has heard it remembers, at the same time prayer and loving conversation. There was no questioning Toby's love for his family and for whoever was talking to him. What a wonderful man.

Dear Phyllis and Family, Our love and condolences goes out to you at this time. We were able to watch the funeral proceedings and they were great. It caused us to reflect upon our relationship with you in earlier years and seeing you, Phyllis, at DUP meetings (for which I am grateful). You have a wonderful family. May you take joy in your memories of the marvelous times you have shared as a family; and more particularly of your knowledge of the Lord's great eternal plan. With love and sympathy, Sherman and Karm Rae Sheffield

We have relived so many memories in listening to the funeral service, after reading the very thoughtful and complete tribute in his obituary. The Pingree family were so influential in our early married life in Walnut Creek.

Toby's early morning seminary class was relished by our sons, who loved his willingness to discuss, debate and honor opinions and questions of young people. Toby and Phyllis had a vibrant loving relationship, with lots of sparks, laughs and most of all, love, that we wanted to emulate. The six kids were amazing examples of developing their many talents and achieving great successes while in their Northgate High School years. I remember sharing tears with Toby in Tilden Park at a Father's and Son's outing when we heard about the priesthood for all God's sons. Thanks for your example to so many. Don and Marsha

Dear Sister Pingree and family, What a beautiful service and celebration of Dear President Pingree (Toby's) life here in mortality! I have praying since this past Sunday upon hearing of Toby's passing for you all to feel comfort and God's love for you. Thank you for your sacrifice of your parents as President and Sister Pingree! The influence, example and love for me was immense and has had a profound eternal impact upon me, my marriage, as a husband and father, son, grandfather and ecclesiastical leader. Oh how I love Toby! I speak often of dear President and Sister Pingree to my wife and children. God be with you and may you continue to feel peace and comfort. Your brother in Christ. Kevin Burton

We admired Toby, his stimulating personality and student of many aspects of life, including the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He had thought provoking questions and extensive knowledge of the world about him. We valued his friendship. He will be greatly missed. Ned and Alene Mangelson

Toby is a spiritual warrior, staying strong and committed to Christ, especially as he fought for equality for all, just as Christ did. He is a great example to our family and we have been well-loved by Toby and Phyllis all these years. All our love, Sid & Lisa Thornton family

Ever since Toby and Mary ruled the roost as class officers at the U, the Pingrees have been integral to Bradford happiness for nearly 70 years. Toby and Mary's next generation -- inclusive of Tim-Bob, Scooter, Skeeter, Al-Gal, Skip, Squirrel, Jones, and their respective (and sometimes shifting) "significant others", etc. -- have all entwined in one form or another in significant, often hilarious, and enriching ways at BYU, the Spain Madrid Mission, DC/Virginia, and ad infinitum. Toby's multifaceted legacy beautifully and eternally lives on in his children, grandchildren and great-children as we all look forward to meeting up again on the other side. xoxoxo, the Bradford Clan

What a great tribute to a great man. It was wonderful to see the Pingree family after all these years. When I saw Tim at that YV reunion years ago, I had not seen Tim in about 20 years and he was about the same age as Toby was when I saw him last. So yes, Tim was more like Toby than like Tim as I remembered. With is a great thing. Thank you Pingree family for lending your dad to others. My Dad was a great man in his own way, but with 8 kids and other assignments, he played a different roll. He did not have the temperament, patients or desire to spend much time with teenage boys. My friends dads filled that spot. Bro. Pingree, Bro. Ellenburg, Bro Hutchens,

Bro Bay, Bro. Spotts, Guymon, Adams and others, all were teachers, advisor, coaches and made sure I had way to games, practices and comp outs. I do know I made their assignments challenging and miserable at times. They opened their homes to me. To me it is a great complement to see my buddies turn into their dads whom I love. They all made my life better and showed me what I could become if I chose to. We are our fathers children and are endowed with their DNA. We are children of God and hopefully we are learning the easy and hard lessons needed to become like Them. May you all find peace and comfort in knowing Toby had a plan and followed it. He is were he not only hoped to be, but lived his life to get there.

Sis. Pingree, You and Pres. have really blessed my life. I will never forget the first few weeks of my mission. I did not come prepared with proper skirts and you graciously took me into your room and shared with me a few skirts that would get me through the first weeks until my family was able to send me the proper attire. You were so kind and made me feel comfortable. You and Pres. always made each of us feel like family. You always remembered to ask about my parents who were also serving a mission at the time. I knew that I could always talk to either of you about anything. Pres. always took time to make a personal comment on every weekly report, which let us know that we were much more than a number. My mission really helped me to grow and mature. Please know that I appreciate all you sacrificed for us missionaries. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I pray that your family will have great Peace at this difficult time. Love LaRue Wray (Hermana Worthen)

Alison, thank you for including me in your announcement about Toby's passing. I remember our common threads--Walnut Creek/Bay Area, Lorenzo Hoopes. I don't know how it got here so fast, but I'm now 85 and less a willing traveler. Just a few years ago, Costa Rica was such an adventure. I remember Phyllis, your mom, and send my affection and condolences to your entire family from Santa Fe.

What a beautiful tribute to a great man. I know all six of his children (especially Tim) and some of the grandchildren. It's no wonder they turned out so wonderful with such great parents. My sympathies.

I am so sorry that I learn of this loss so late. I am ever grateful for the family I am associated with. I met Toby Pingree when attending Grace Kirkham Burbidge's funeral. One might think I would recall the Kirkham relations I met! After reading the tribute I believe anyone would have remembered him. However we became associated, I know the greater family has had a loss. Those of you nearer, who see the empty chair, miss the cheerful response, please believe you are held dearly just now. You are in my deepest remembrances.

What a wonderful summary and tribute of this unique and enduring man! The Wood family sends our sweet thoughts and tender love to Phyllis at this difficult time of separation. Our parents, Vince and Gail Wood loved Toby and Phyllis and cherished the years they had together. I am sure they are enjoying a great reunion in the spirit world just now with Toby, discussing the amazing wonders of Eternity that are in their view!
