Dad, You were the one for our mother and was glad to know you as a great father. You taught me how to drive and make sure that I knew the handbook inside and out before getting the written and driving test done. I remember when you came home from work and we both worked together on your reports. I got to know alot about your job and always appreciated what you did. I am glad you were the one to walk me down the aisle for my wedding, I couldn't ask for anyone better than you. One thing I will miss is our football game gatherings. Will it be Denver or Green Bay in the Superbowl. Last but not least, our breakfast burritos at Ogie's. What a treat. I will love and forever miss you.

So sorry to hear that jj passed. I always enjoyed the interaction with him while I was in the expomart office for the 30 years prior to closing down. We both regaled about out small town Wyoming upbringing and the things we were doing now with our family. RIP cowboy!

What are we going to do without your daily phone calls with you saying ‘what are you doing’ instead of the normal hello. We were lucky to have you both as neighbors and as good friends. We have so enjoyed JJ’s and Lesa’s company on so many road and camping trips over the past fifteen years. I will miss the badgering between Todd and JJ on who caught the most and biggest fish and the fish stories. We will even miss our breakfasts at Ogies (I wasn’t the biggest fan of Ogies, but JJ loved it, so I went). Hope you are enjoying the lakes and telling your fish stories to those you have missed. We’ll see you later. Love Holly & Todd

- Todd and Holly Clark

JJ Willhard, you little dickens. You sneaked out of here before I could get you to the Temple. I remember your smile whenever I mentioned it….. too nice to tell me to knock it off. When Bick heard of your passing he said, “JJ was a good man. Nice to have known you, JJ.” So true. Everyone would agree who knew you, nice to have known you and we’ll know you again in the next life. Be watching for us. Mitzi Robbins
