

John Kay Miller

June 29, 1964 ~ September 7, 2025

John Miller was a crucial part of my childhood. Lexi and I went to the same daycare and became fast friends. Since both of our parents were working single parents, I spent a lot of my time in the summer with Lexi and John. John Miller was a hardworking man with a kind heart and a deep love for his daughter that was reflected in everything he did. He kindly opened his home to me and demonstrated for me what it means to be a father. He was taken from us too soon, but I believe he lived the life he was given to the fullest and created a positive impact on everyone that knew him.

John was a good friend to our family. With his help Lynne was able to get an insurance policy that work for her. We are glad that we know John he will be greatly missed.

This man was such an amazing person. I am glad to of known him. Helped me in times of need. I am saddened at how fast this came to be. Expected to see him with the family again. I can only imagine the struggles of emotion and thought of being able to see him again. Patience and gratitude. My condolences

John has been our neighbor, friend and insurance guy for 27 years. We had daughters the same age and we did 4th of July barbecues with us, took the girls camping, fishing, and to church. He helped us when we remodeled our house and when my husband passed away he was there to help me. He always took good care of me with my insurance and we had many talks thru the years about kids, God, politics, I enjoyed our visits and I will miss my friend. I am so sorry for your loss there are no words except that I know he waits at heavens gate for your arrival, until your together again you will miss him but know he is safe in the arms of Jesus now.

So sorry to see him pass - prayers for all those who we're close to him and loved him.

Todavía se me hace difícil creer que John ya no está en este plano, que se fue muy pronto, pero Dios tiene nuestros días contados en esta tierra, y solo Él sabe porque se lo llevó tan pronto.a John siempre lo conocí un hombre positivo, trabajador, y muy alegre y tenía mucho amor para su hija y su prometida.Dios le haya dado descanso eterno y les de paz y gozo a sus seres queridos , que están pasando este trago amargo y triste. Descanse en paz John.
