Sorry for your loss. My best to all the family.

After reading the obituary there is nothing more to add. I’m grateful he was in my life and no matter when or where I saw him he had that smile was so funny. I love you John and Pat. My prayers are with you and your family.

Our hearts are filled with compassion for the Brown Family on the passing of their beloved father, grandfather, friend and co-worker. Our many years as fellow members of the Ward and Church have brought us together in so many ways. We missed worshiping and being together in the several ways and callings that brought us to the service of our fellow Saints. We pray that God will bless you at this trying time and send the Holy Ghost to sustain you in your need. The Johnston Family
