Randy was and is so special to us. He was always very kind and accepting of everyone. He was an example of Christlike love. We are so grateful to have had him in our lives on earth. Love, Brittany and Jeff Jacobson

Chris, I am so sorry for your loss.

Wow, what a shock. I should have helped you cut the fence posts. We love you for your impact in our lives. Nothing is more fun than a good argument with Randy. His stories are bigger than life, his love close to the Saviors being all encompassing, his service is never ending, and his ability to put others benefit over his own discomfort or pain is astonishing. He never showed if he was tired always willing to one more important thing or act of kindness. I will never forget being kissed by a guy with whiskers. Love you Randy.

I'm so saddened to hear about Randy's passing. His laughter and support around the lab will be deeply missed. I hope memories of him will bring you comfort. Keeping all in my thoughts and prayers.

The thought of not having my big brother around is truly sad. We will all miss his love of life, his laughter, hugs and kisses. so grateful for him being part of our family. He has taught us all so much. We love you Randy. It's a hard loss for his family and wife. Sending Chris and the Cunningham kids all our love.

- Denise and Allan nelson and family

We are so sorry for your loss even if we have lost touch over the years. We had some good visits in the short few years we passed thru SLC. We lost Randy for a few years so I contacted the Church to find him for me, and they did, and he called, leading to a couple of visits as we passed thru to Mexico. We haven't done that for a long time. He always said someday he would visit us in Canada but sadly that won't happen now. I Pray for Peace and Rest for Randy and comfort for his children and grandchildren. With affection your cousin Vera, husband Gordon, Bree-Anne and Ryan from Medicine Hat, Alberta

I served in Mexico with Randy nearly 50 years ago. He was universally loved by companions and members, and was a successful missionary because of his love for people and for the Savior. His obituary describes him just as I remember him. God bless you, his loved ones, as you heal from your loss.

My sincere condolences to the family.

In my mind Randy will forever be rolling up to office on his bike, hat on backwards, grin as big as the heart he shared with everyone he met. Condolences to all.

Although my interactions with Randy were brief and virtual, he was always knowledgeable, helpful and quick with gentle humor. He leaves a large hole in the hearts of all around him. Prayers for you all.

Today is November 24, 2022 (US Thanksgiving) and I just found out that my dearest friend, Randy passed. I had sent him birthday wishes earlier this week and knew when he didn't respond within minutes of my text, something was wrong. I last heard/texted with him, on Canada's Thanksgiving October 9, 2022. He replied immediately "berating" me for "beating him to the punch" and a wonderful message which I will cherish forever. "Love you best friend". That says it all. Randy and I were best buds back in high school in Edmonton. He and I organized a number of basketball trips and were always together with his other best friend, Gordon McRae. I attended both Randy's and Gordon's baptism in the Church of Latter Day Saints and 40 years later joined myself. We remained 'best friends' all these years as I have kept in touch with Randy throughout the years, tracking him down when I couldn't get him out of my head and seemed to arrive "just in the nick of time" when life was not going to well for him. And in 2014, I managed to see my best friend in Utah for the first time in 30 years. A meeting I will also cherish. I knew you were gone Randy. Just knew it. But I know you are happy with our Heavenly Father. I shall see you again soon but I will miss you every day until that day comes. Thank you for being my friend for all these years. I will love you forever.

One of the greatest people I've ever had the privilege of meeting. He taught me so much and passed on so much knowledge while I worked with him and beyond. He treated me like son and I will always remember him for it. I'm deeply saddened by his passing, I just found out about it today cause I tried to call him for advice and the number was disconnected. My condolences go out to all of his family. I'm going to miss you Ole man/Viejo.
