Much love and tenderness sent to the family. May you find the great comfort of your faith.

Both of your parents Sue & Bob were ever so kind to me personally. My deepest condolence at their passing. May God bless

Dad was a great father, that taught me so many things during his lifetime. I also have fond and great memories. From running rivers in the grand canyon on a power boat to seeing him panic and laugh when a sink he had his shoe on, to tie shoelaces, broke (spraying water all over in the RV park bathroom) when we first went to Disneyland long ago. He allowed Jim and I to be the TV Tube testers when he was repairing broken TV's and we reveled in the fun to test the various vacuum tubes on dads tester, it was great fun for two young boys. We also got to help build things with dad, like taking our 15 passenger van and cutting off the back of it and then putting our Shasta trailer on it to make an our own family home made RV, then we used it to tow our boat(s) with that RV and even the boat(s) were made by dad, his national guard buddies along with Jim and I using fiberglass made 2 boats over the years. And the first boat was a blast to build but when we took it out the first time at Utah Lake we had lawn chairs to sit on and the outboard motor was strapped on to test it out, and when we did a sharp turn we got to watch the motor jump 10 feet in the air, turn sideways and plunge into the lake AHHHH!. We spent the next 3 days with dads National Guard buddies that could scuba dive dragging the lake to find that motor, which we did find, and his scuba diving friends brought it up for us. We used that boat for several years till dad made the next one which is the one we traversed the Colorado River, at the bottom of the grand canyon for 5 days, it was a trip of a life time. Life was not dull with dad, ever. I will miss him beyond what most people think, he was the creator of who I am in so many ways. Miss You DAD and love you forever.

You’ve been a wonderful brother-in-law and a wonderful husband to my sister. I am so grateful for knowing you and wish you eternal joy with Sue.
