

Joseph Lynn Saxton

July 20, 1937 ~ February 11, 2023

Dear Gail and Family, Was sad to hear of your loss of Lynn your Sweetheart and father and grandfather. May you each find peace in knowing you will be Together Forever again and he is with his parents and your loved ones who have gone on before. Life is a gift. He did well. It's up to each one of us to live life so we can be together as Family and Friends. With Friendship and Love ❤■ Don and Mary & Family

We are so sorry for your loss. May the spirit comfort you at this time. Lynn was always nice to the crazy teenagers of the neighborhood. He was always awesome to our Sunday school class.

I saw (Joseph) Lynn's picture and recognized him and his wife looked familiar also. I also worked at Hercules and then saw they both attended West High. I'm a year younger but I also attended West during the 50's. That said, my condolences to Lynn's family. He was a good guy and I'm sure he will be missed.
