Chanae, I remember watching you guys the day you two got married. So young, happy, and eager to start your lives together with your soon to be up and coming family. The kind of love and care that you and Josh had for each other and your babies is the kind that very few people get to experience in their lifetime. My sincere prayer is that you and your babies can remember that special time and carry it with you forever. I love you cousin. My heart hurts for you. And my thoughts and prayers are with your and your family.

Our sincere condolences to the entire family. We knew Josh as a friend to our son PJ. They were a happy team in high school and beyond. They worked at a Ice cream store together and had a fun time. They talked me into using my new car for a trip to Cali, I’m sure they obeyed all the traffic laws. Josh was a good soul gone way too soon. We will miss him. Our Love…
