

Joyce Ann Corum

August 17, 1943 ~ November 29, 2025

I love you Joyce and family, miss you a lot, you were my second mom and extended family

- Chet

Oh Joyce I will miss you. i loved visiting you and enjoying book conversations and movie reviews. I love you. Say hi to Nancy and James. Love you, Carrie

- Carrie Hanson

My love and prayers go out to you and your family Sarah. I have never had the honor of meeting your Mom, but I do you and I knew your sister and she raised amazing strong beautiful smart women, so that tells me all I need to know. May her soul find peace and love in our Savior our Lord Jesus Christ Amen.

- Peggy Garcia

Joyce was my Visiting Teacher for many years. I have missed her presence in my home since the pandemic changed everything. May you be comforted at this time. Our prayers are with you. Earl and Marie

- Marie McKee

Don, and kids, I'm so sorry for your loss. Prayers and love to your family. ❤■❤■❤■❤■

I was married to David Mathew Corum, and during the brief period I lived in Utah, I enjoyed going to visit Aunt Joyce. Her passing breaks my heart, as she was such a sweet woman. I wish the family a very Merry Christmas, and prayers for peace and healing through the New Year. Much love, Kerry

- Kerry Reid McGuire

Joyce and my mom Jackie were BFFs from they day we moved to Sandy Utah in 1972. So sad to see of her passing as I am at another service in our old ward house today. May God's spirit be with the corum family. Untill we meet again.
