Capener's: I finally got to watch the service that I missed. Thank heaven Larkin records these for those of us with aging minds who completely forgot the service! It was lovely, and I was glad to see Judy's family. She was one of my favorite people on this planet. She and I once discussed death. She told me she was sure that our magnetic energy lived on, even though our bodies had given up. I am sure she's right, and that she will hang around you, and I hope around me, too. Love to all of you. She was maybe the brightest light I ever had the pleasure to know and to laugh with and to love. Fondly, Terrell Harris Dougan
