So sorry for your loss sorry I can't make it

- Duke Kelsch

Sorry for your loss

- Spencer Stowell

My most sincere condolences and prayers for your sweet family that I've got to know since working in your beautiful home. My positive thoughts are with you all in these challenging times. Most sincerely, Clint (your floor man)

Kailees 'I Am' statement describes her perfectly. She was the brightest light in the room, the biggest smile in the crowd and had the warmest hugs and a talent for making you feel special. This world is brighter for having her light in it and it will continue to shine brighter for the light she left. It will not be the same without her. I will miss her every day. I am so sorry for her family she left behind.■ My family sends all of our love to you all ♥■

- Darlene Kelsch

Kerri, I'm so sorry for your loss and the loss the whole family will feel for years to come. It's so heartbreaking that she suffered and a a mom, you suffered with her..... yet I'm so happy she doesn't have to suffer any more. It's all behind her and now her adventures can continue on an epic level. I wish I was there to give you a big hug.■■■■

Every life is precious and every moment with them is a gem, I'm sad for your loss, but at the same time grateful you had such a wonderful woman in your guys life. You don't measure a soul by the time you spent with them but by the caliber and quality they lived. Which she did to the fullest.

Andrew and I had the unforgettable privilege of going through impact with Kailee. She was one that touched both of us so much. I connected with Kailee because I had gone through impact the first time at her age. She was my 19 year old spirit. She will always hold a deep place in my heart. Andrew had the privilege of spending time with her after she got the news that her sweet body had been overtaken by this horrible illness. She was so positive. She was an example of courage and She emulated Love. We love you Kailee. When we meet again I can count on you showing me the way and making sure we Both " get over the wall" LOVE you and miss you..
