May the Lord watch over your family. May He grant you peace, strength, understanding, warmth and love. May you always remember the joy and happiness that Katy Bug brought into your lives. May these memories live in joy and happiness in your hearts. May you live your lives in love of the example of Katy's love for you and that your lives become of testimony of that love. May Katy Bug now rejoice in the peace and love that has awaited her. Amen.

Dear Shawn, Tammy and Family, What a joy it was for me watching Shawn carry his sweet Kaitlyn while coaching and teaching his football players in the Hunter/Cyprus football league. The love that has been shown to their sweet little girl radiates to all who know the Delobel family. I am so grateful that along with our son JD, we got to be a small part of that love and this loving family. May we all treasure the memories made with our families here on earth and rejoice in the reunions in Heaven. Rest easy sweet girl your journey is complete, you will forever have an impact on the many lives you have touched. Our sincere condolences, The Hardman Family Brad, Karon and JD.

She is a sweet angel! Sorry I couldn't make it. Too hard for me with having my own sweet angel and losing Mike. Make sure you stay close to the Lord. He will help. Love you guys! Es
