I am so sorry for your loss! Your family is so special and although your beloved Kalli has returned to our Heavenly Father her heritage of love and righteousness continues through her family. What a blessing to have known her. She totally believes in love and an eternal family so hopefully your hearts will eventually be healed and you'll look forward to a wonderful reunion. Our prayers are with your family for peace and comfort.

I worked with Andy for nearly 8 years when he was working for M2 Logistics. I was based in Green Bay but had the pleasure of meeting Kalli on a couple of occasions on visits to Salt lake City. As described, I remember a very 'happy, positive, energy boosting" vibe that was contagious. That is a true gift and so needed in today's world. Andy & Kids- my deepest condolences and prayer's during this time. I am so saddened by your loss. Glen

Dear Reese Family ~ I wanted to add my condolences for the passing on of your beloved wife, mother, sister, daughter and friend. Kalli was so beloved here at Hidden Hollow Elementary as an intelligent, hard-working and generous aide. I had the privilege of working with her and my sixth grade students benefited immensely from her kind instruction and helpful learning aid. I was always appreciative of how easy, cooperative and friendly our working relationship was. I considered her a friend as well as an esteemed colleague. I know that you all are missing her great presence, love and that smile! Our Heavenly Father is watching, protecting and supporting you all. I will continue to pray for your dear family. ~ Lori Ingram Vliet

Andy - my friend, I am so sorry for your loss, this was absolutely gut-wrenching to learn. I know that you have an amazing network of family and friends that will support you and lift your family up in prayer. I was only able to meet Kalli once while we were in Mesquite at a soccer tournament, go figure?!?! Her light shined bright and she was so sweet. Wishing you and your family courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to hold in your hearts forever. Our best, Tim, Amy and Ethan Thomas

- Tim Thomas

We met Kalli and the Reese family through some mutual softball friends of ours. Elli played Junior Jazz basketball with our softball team/girls several years ago. Sending all the love to your family. You are all in our hearts. -The McDermaids

I am saddened to hear of Kalli's passing. She has so much to live for. I am newly diagnosed with a rare appendiceal cancer myself and could hardly sleep last night after reading her obituary. I live in Lehi Utah and would like to know more about her illness and treatment. My FB page is listed as Julie McWhirk Ladle, if anyone is able to reach out. Bless your family. I'm so sorry for your loss.
