So sorry about the loss of your mother. I wish we had know we sure would have been there. She and Tony were very close and they always were kidding with other. He was very sad today when I found her obituary. Growing up I so admired her. She was so pretty. When I would go to grandma and grandpa Wathens she would let me go in her room and sit on her bed and we would talk. I am sure that mother and uncle Victor are so happy to have their sister back.
