

Kay Lorus Walker

May 19, 1941 ~ January 31, 2021

Sorry to see you go. Told some great stories at Breakfast.

- GEORGE LYNN DEREUS

My heart goes out to all who new this fine gentleman. He was a exceptional farther and grandfather to soo many. I only met Kay a few times however i appreciated his love and devotion and for being there for my granddaughter Maren. May you rest in peace.

You will be missed...you and your wonderful family were a big part of our lives when our kids were growing up. My husband, Kent, had many, many wonderful times growing up with you and riding to the U of U with you and the gang....thank you for all the awesome memories...the Hyde's will love you and your family forever! Love to the Walker's, Dianne Hyde

I knew Kay from Kearns Jr. High. Kay, Ross Borders and myself had a lot of laughs. Until the virus a group of us would meet every two weeks for breakfast. Kay was always upbeat, he never complained. He got a big kick out of playing the devil's advocate when it came to politics; he will be sadly missed.

Kay was a wonderful father, a loving husband and the best grandfather anybody could ever have. We were very lucky to have him in our lives and he will be terribly, terribly missed.

- Corrie Graven

Matt and family, I was so sorry to hear about Kay. We had many great times at Kearns Jr. and Jefferson Jr, especially with Kathy Starbuck in the mix. I'm sure the two of them are raising a glass of their own on the other side. The world has lost a special man. Bud Strong

Jim knew Kay from Kearns Junior. I made his acquaintance when I opened Jefferson Junior and he was media coordinator. Jim preceded Kay on January 26. They were two fine men in the junior high ranks. My condolences to you.

Kay was frequently the “Devil’s Advocate” at our breakfast gatherings. He was one of the good guys and we will miss him. A lot! Patrick Thomas

Today is Kay’s birthday, and I was saddened to see he had passed last year. Kay and Nancy treated me like one of their own, and I’m forever grateful to them for taking me in and showing such kindness when I needed it. You were a blessing to me, and will be massively missed. Much love, b.
