Kayleen was a ray of beautiful sunshine. Softly speaking, with a laugh that was contagious. When she first diagnosed with cancer she took it like a Real lady. She never missed a beat. As much as she was going through she was always asking what can I do to help you. I have to say farewell to my friend, you will be missed. As someone comes from the parking lot I’ll wait to see if it’s you. As your reunited with other family members, those still here will know. Your watching over them. May you Rest In Peace beautiful lady.

I can't believe the world lost such an amazing beautiful person at such a young age. She did fight a hard battle that ended up needing her more then the rest of us needed her! She will be greatly missed!!
