

Keith Taylor

April 5, 1928 ~ May 16, 2021

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your father. I have a lot of precious memories of hunting and fishing with Keith Taylor and his sons. God bless you all it always

Hi! I am sorry that I was unable to make it out to the funeral. My mother, Keith E. Taylor's oldest daughter, Kim Taylor, called to let me know about the funeral service that was held in Idaho. I was unable to make it because I was unable to afford a flight ticket on short notice. She told me over the phone that her younger brother, my Uncle Clark, was going to give her a ride to the funeral service that I heard was being held in Idaho. I clicked on this website link that was shared to me by my younger cousin Stephani Laybourne (Maiden name, Taylor) on Facebook. I am grateful that I at least was given the opportunity to watch the funeral service online. Thank you to whoever put this website together. I am sad about his passing. I have stayed in touch with him and his wife Paula via email, phone, and the mail. Anyways, I hope that this information is okay to share. I sent him and his wife Paula an email shortly before his passing. I am sad that I didn't get a chance to say "goodbye" over the phone or something. I am his oldest granddaughter. I am sending my condolences a second time I guess. Sincerely, -Ann Michelle Warder

Hi! I was unable to make it to the funeral that was held for my Grandfather Keith E. Taylor. I apologize for not being able to make it to the services. I was unable to afford transportation. I don't think that my cousin was either, but we were informed of the funeral service that was held in Idaho. My condolences. Sincerely, Keith E. Taylor's oldest granddaughter, and oldest daughter, first born of my mother Kim Taylor; she is his oldest daughter. My mother, Kim Taylor, and her brother, my Uncle Clark Taylor, were able to attend the service. I was not able to attend the funeral service, unfortunately; neither was my cousin Stephanie Laybourne (her maiden name is Taylor, her married last name is Laybourne). My mother's brother, my Uncle Clark Taylor, drove her to the funeral service, or so I was told by her over the phone. I am paraphrasing what I remember she told me over the phone. I apologize for any grammatical errors. Sincerely, Keith E. Taylor's olderest granddaughter, in Christ Jesus, -Ann Michelle Warder
