Keith was a pleasure to work with. He was generous, a fantastic cook, kind and always happy. I will miss his good grilled or smoked meats that he would bring in to the office and share. My husband is a chef and I would bring him some of his food to try. I know good food, and Keith had amazing talent. Some of his food was better than my husbands and I would jokingly offer him a job in the catering business. I remember how dedicated he was to getting in better shape to for pickle ball for his wife's sake. He would turn down some of the pastries I would bring in to share, with kindness and grace. He was a great example to me of dedication, to family and work. You could always count on Keith to participate in work activities in a positive way. He will truly be missed. See you again, friend.

Karen and the rest of your posterity, So sad for you and the rest of your family. Such a shock to all who knew him. His warm demeanor and zest for life are the memories created when I met him at East. Memories that followed him every time that I ran into him. May you know that there is and will be a circle of friends who have and will continue to love and support you in many different ways as you grieve the loss of one of the best. Look forward with faith. Listen to the still small voice as it comforts each of you. God lives, Jesus is the Christ, our advocate with the Father and He loves each and everyone of you and knows your pain and will wrap His arms around you and sustain you through this difficult time. God bless you all. Joel VO-EHS 75

This man has a beautiful, kind, gentle spirit. I have enjoyed his story that is so well written with all the love and caring of who he was. I know Scott and Scarlet and what remarkable teachings of what one man can do. I see Scott with the qualities that exemplify what he learned and how he lives his life by how much love this family has shown. God gave us opportunities to grow and gain wisdom and knowledge. I have just witnessed a life story about a man and his family who gave it all because of the hard things given in this life to learn. My deepest love and gratitude for sharing your secret Scott. True loving and living and enjoying every precious moment while here on earth. My condolences to beautiful families and I pray for peace and comfort that our Savior gives to you. Thank you for changing my life as I read about this great man. I love you!

Karen and family, Keith and I were in madrigals together at East High. He seemed to be involved in everything. He was always a just a great man and kind to everyone. He had a quiet kind of confidence and a smile that you just had to love. Please accept our condolences and our love. We pray for peace and understanding and comfort. There will be a great reunion again. Remember that there are many people whose lives were touched for good by Keith. The Savior shared these beautiful words, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid" (John 14:27). Much love, Warren and Marilyn Clark

My thoughts, prayers, and best wishes/hopes to Jane. She was a colleague of mine when I was a volunteer at Primary Children's Hospital. I still think about her and the others in Same Day Surgery a lot and I still miss them. They all are living inside my head all the time.
