

Kent Eves Hatfield

February 3, 1934 ~ January 9, 2021

We have known and loved Kent for many years, along with Renee and the family. He was truly a gentle, loving, accomplished giant of a man. Don and Kent were born on the same day, and celebrated their 40th birthday together. Nice warm obituary from the family.

Kent was an amazing guy and fun to be around. He was well-read, well-traveled and was familiar with any topic you might want to discuss. We loved seeing the early photos of Kent. They gave us a glimpse of his life before we knew him, which has been 43 years now! Our love and sympathy to Renee and the entire Hatfield family. We'll miss Kent!

The McNally Family wishes to extend our deepest concern in the passing of Kent. The Hatfields were such wonderful neighbors to the Dunkleys and then Jeff Mc Nally. He will be missed!!!!

Thea, So very sorry about your loss. I hope your whole family is full of peace, comfort, love, and happy memories. You are truly such a wonderful person and a selfless daughter. I have no doubt your father felt very loved by you and was extremely appreciative of you. Hugs, Shanna

We met Kent and Renee in Corpus Christi, Texas and it about broke my heart when they were transferred to Georgia. It was Kent whose friendship and Gospel mentoring that resulted in my husband, Ron's being baptized and started on a faithful steward ship of Gospel service. It's so hard to lose a loved one even though we know the separation is only temporary.. I know the Lord is comforting you and sending His peace to lighten your burden.

Sending our love and prayers to your family what a beautiful family what a beautiful life ,may the Lord embrace you all at this time.

I sent my sentiments to my friend, Kent, since high school in a letter to him a couple of months ago. Donna and I express condolences to Renee.

We have known Kent and his family for many years, living in the same ward and neighborhood. I appreciated his interesting searching questions about the gospel and life in general. I was also fortunate to know the family in the capacity of the pediatrician to their son John. They are a wonderful family, and Kent has been missed due to his health problems the past while. We love you, Hatfield family, and express our condolences on Kent's passing. Dr. Frank Bentley
